

At Lowell School, we commit to working together with students, parents, and the community to provide a safe environment that fosters each child's full potential.

We believe:

- . All of our students are capable of academic success.
- . All of our students have the ability to become responsible, respectful, and contributing citizens.
- . Every individual has unique skills and talents.
- . Every individual deserves respect.
- . A climate of high expectations and optimism increases student achievement.
- . In encouraging and building a community of lifelong learners.
- . In providing a positive environment which encourages a sense of safety, self-worth, and social/emotional well-being for all.
